HURUNUI DISTRICT COUNCIL POLICY RATES PENALTIES

Introduction       This policy sets out the financial penalty for rates payments received the instalment due date in all cases where no prior arrangement has made with the Council.         Instalment Penalty       A 10% additional charge will be added to those rates instalments (o portions thereof) remaining unpaid on the day following the due dat instalment Number         Due Date*       Penalty Dat         One       20 August       21 August         Two       20 November       21 Novemb         Three       20 February       21 February         Four       20 April       21 April         *Or next applicable business day       A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.         Remission of Penalties       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acce to the Chief Financial Officer.         Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).         All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears. <th colspan="3"></th>
Instalment Penalty       A 10% additional charge will be added to those rates instalments (o portions thereof) remaining unpaid on the day following the due dat         Instalment Penalty       A 10% additional charge will be added to those rates instalments (o portions thereof) remaining unpaid on the day following the due dat         Instalment Penalty       A 10% additional charge will be added to those rates instalments (o portions thereof) remaining unpaid on the day following the due dat         Instalment Penalty       A 10% additional charge of Due Date*       Penalty Dat         Arrears Penalty       A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.         Remission of Penalties       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         -       Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acce to the Chief Financial Officer.         -       Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximur one such remission every two years).         -       All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         -       The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears. <th></th> <th></th> <th></th>
Installient Penalty       portions thereof) remaining unpaid on the day following the due dat         Instalment Penalty       Instalment Number       Due Date*       Penalty Dat         One       20 August       21 August         Two       20 November       21 Novemb         Three       20 February       21 February         Four       20 April       21 April         *Or next applicable business day       A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.         Remission of Penalties       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         -       Application can be made in writing for a remission of a penal has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acces to the Chief Financial Officer.         -       Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).         -       All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         -       The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.	the instalment due date in
One       20 August       21 August         Two       20 November       21 Novemb         Three       20 February       21 February         Four       20 April       21 April         *Or next applicable business day       A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charges from previous rating years remaining unpaid on 1 A further additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.         Remission of Penalties       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acces to the Chief Financial Officer.         Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).         All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.         At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission	_
Two       20 November       21 Novemb         Three       20 February       21 February         Four       20 April       21 April         *Or next applicable business day       *         Arrears Penalty       A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charges from previous rating years remaining unpaid on 1 A further additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.         Remission of Penalties       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         -       Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acces to the Chief Financial Officer.         -       Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).         -       All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         -       The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.         At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission	Instalment Number	Due Date*	Penalty Date*
Three       20 February       21 February         Four       20 April       21 April         Arrears Penalty       A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charges from previous rating years remaining unpaid on 1 A further additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.         Remission of Penalties       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acces to the Chief Financial Officer.         Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).         All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.         At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission	One	20 August	21 August
Four       20 April       21 April         Arrears Penalty       A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charges from previous rating years remaining unpaid on 1 A further additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.         Remission of Penalties       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         -       Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acces to the Chief Financial Officer.         -       Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).         -       All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         -       The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.	Тwo	20 November	21 November
<ul> <li>Arrears Penalty</li> <li>A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charges from previous rating years remaining unpaid on 1 A further additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.</li> <li>Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         <ul> <li>Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acces to the Chief Financial Officer.</li> <li>Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remission charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for repayment of arrears.</li> <li>At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Three	20 February	21 February
<ul> <li>Arrears Penalty</li> <li>A further additional charge of 10% will be added to all rates and additional charges from previous rating years remaining unpaid on 1 A further additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains unpaid on 1 January.</li> <li>Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following criteria:         <ul> <li>Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acces to the Chief Financial Officer.</li> <li>Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.</li> <li>The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Four	20 April	21 April
Arricals Penalty       additional charges from previous rating years remaining unpaid on 1         A further additional charge of 10% will be added to any rates to whi       additional charge referred to in this paragraph is added and remains         unpaid on 1 January.       Additional charges may be remitted in accordance with the following         criteria:       –         Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena         has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acce         to the Chief Financial Officer.         –       Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for         remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).         –       All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.         –       The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.         At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission	*Or next applicable business	day
<ul> <li>criteria:</li> <li>Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons accerto the Chief Financial Officer.</li> <li>Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remission considered.</li> <li>The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for regipayment of arrears.</li> </ul>	A further additional charg additional charg	e of 10% will be added to	o any rates to which the
<ul> <li>Application can be made in writing for a remission of a pena has arisen due to sickness, death, age, or other reasons acce to the Chief Financial Officer.</li> <li>Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.</li> <li>The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.</li> <li>At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission</li> </ul>		remitted in accordance	with the following
<ul> <li>remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum one such remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.</li> <li>The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for registry payment of arrears.</li> <li>At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission</li> </ul>	has arisen due to	sickness, death, age, or o
<ul> <li>one such remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.</li> <li>The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for regipayment of arrears.</li> <li>At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Application can be made to the Chief Financial Officer for</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general rule, before remiss considered.</li> <li>The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears.</li> <li>At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission</li> </ul>	remission of a penalty for no substantial reason (a maximum of <ul> <li>considered.</li> <li>The Chief Financial Officer may remit subsequent additional charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for regipayment of arrears.</li> <li>At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission</li> </ul> charges where satisfactory arrangements are in place for reg payment of arrears. At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remission	-	oaid in full, as a general r	ule, before remission is payment of arrears. At the Chief Financial Officer's discretion, an application for remissio	– The Chief Financia	l Officer may remit subse	equent additional
	-		are in place for regular rates penalties may be referred to the Council for consideration	At the Chief Financial Offic	er's discretion, an applic	ation for remission of rates penalties may be referred to the council for consideration.	rates penalties may be ref	erred to the Council for o	consideration.
ND OF POLICY		Rates Penalties Policy (15 A This policy sets out the fin- the instalment due date in made with the Council. A 10% additional charge w portions thereof) remaining Instalment Number One Two Three Four Or next applicable business A further additional charge additional charges from pr A further additional charge additional charge referred unpaid on 1 January. Additional charges may be criteria: — Application can be has arisen due to s to the Chief Financia — Application can be remission of a pen one such remission — All rates must be p considered. — The Chief Financia Charges where sat payment of arrear	<ul> <li>the instalment due date in all cases where no prior made with the Council.</li> <li>A 10% additional charge will be added to those raportions thereof) remaining unpaid on the day following the early on the day following the early on the day following the early on the early one instalment Number Due Date</li> <li>One Due Date*</li> <li>One 20 August</li> <li>Two 20 November</li> <li>Three 20 February</li> <li>Four 20 April</li> <li>*Or next applicable business day</li> <li>A further additional charge of 10% will be added to additional charges from previous rating years rema A further additional charge of 10% will be added to additional charge referred to in this paragraph is adupaid on 1 January.</li> <li>Additional charges may be remitted in accordance criteria: <ul> <li>Application can be made in writing for a remassion of a penalty for no substantial remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general remission of a remission every two years and the previous for a remission of a penalty for no substantial remission every two years).</li> <li>All rates must be paid in full, as a general remission of a penalty for no substantial remission every two years.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>