Information checklist:

Your application must include the following requirements:

- Application fee (refer to Council's Fees and Charges Schedule)
- Certificate of title (less than 6 months old)
- Location plan (to scale) showing the street address of the application site and accurately identifying neighbouring properties.

- Site plan identifying the shape and location (distance) of the proposed structure to any 'infringed boundary'. The plan also needs to show that the structure complies with all other bulk and location rules in the District Plan (e.g. site coverage).
- Elevation drawings of all structures to be built or altered, showing the relationship of structures to certificate of title boundaries, natural/ finished ground level, and showing compliance with relevant District Plan rules.
- Compliance schedule and/or supporting information that explains how the activity complies with other requirements/rules in the District Plan.

- Complete written approvals from all registered owners of all allotments with infringed boundaries (written approval form signed and dated, all proposal plans signed and dated by all owners with infringed boundaries).

Note to applicant:

- You must include all information required by this form. If all information is not included, the Council will return this to you and the correct information must be supplied before a written notice permitting your activity can be provided.
- In order to be eligible for a deemed permitted boundary activity, the activity must meet the definition of boundary activity under section 87AAB(1) of the Resource Management Act 1991 ("the Act").
- You must provide written approval from all owners of allotments with infringed boundaries under section 87BA(1) of the Act.
- If all of the information required under section 87BA(1) of the Act is provided to the Council, the Council must notify you of your permitted boundary activity within 10 working days after the date on which it receives the information.
- You must pay the charge payable to the Council for the deemed permitted boundary activity under the Act.
- If signing on behalf of a trust or company, please provide additional written evidence that you have the signing authority.
